Powerscourt Estate has traditionally been the home of the Viscounts of Powerscourt — a noble title bestowed upon various high-ranking officials in Ireland since 1618. However, long before the Viscounts began to call the estate home, there was a medieval castle built in the idyllic setting in the 13th century.

Powerscourt Estate: The Complete Guide

This book gets down in the weeds with the problems real estate investors face. It is sort of afocused companion book to Burges' other book, The Complete Guide to Buying and Selling Apartment Buildings, specializing in the leveraging/finance part of evaluations of the transactions.
